

Case study

Commercial Sliding Doors

Summary

Spartan Doors completed the fabrication and delivery of commercial sliding doors for a school in Sydney. The project required solid core doors with acoustic insulation, full-size vision panels made from shatterproof glass and industrial grade rollers to allow students to easily move the doors. The finish was timber veneer and was successfully manufactured and delivered to the customer.

Product Description

Solid Core Sliding Door, Timber Veneer

Industry

Education

Location

New South Wales, Australia

